Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	You have given notice and invited comments on a plan to change the delivery times of this very large site. The information that you have made available is lacking as is the application form. You have compounded that by not providing any information as to what the new delivery times are. How do you expect any party to make any meaningful comment without knowing whether the delay is 8 weeks or 8 years. Given the history of the site 8 years does not seem to be that far fetched. Please contact us and provide full and proper details as to the agreement that you have already reached with the developer so that meaningful comments can be made. Our posistion as to a complaint to the Local Government Ombudsman is reserved if no further information is provided.

Kind regards
