This mapping is indicative only and, due to technical limitations, should be used as a guide only and is not legally binding.

Listed buildings identified on this map are structures included on the national list of buildings of special architecture and historic interest. The law provides that buildings and other structures that predate 1948 and are within the curtilage of a listed building are to be treated as part of a listed building. This mapping does not identify curtilage listed structures.

