Design Statement.

St Ives Town Hall: Installation of new roof lights replacing the existing ones.

Background.

The Town Council roof lights is currently in existence but has become badly weathered and rotting and are in need of replacement (see photographs)

The two replacement lights are identical in appearance, design and materials (see photographs)