The Huntingdonshire District Council hereby certify that on the 29th January 2025 the operation described in the First Schedule to this certificate in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule to this certificate and edged in red on the plan attached to this certificate, would be lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) for the following reason:

1. Reason. The siting of a caravan within the curtilage of 16 Green End, Great Stukeley, Huntingdon PE28 4AE for the described ancillary use as detailed within the submitted application and supporting plans and documents, does not constitute development as defined in Section 55(1) of The Town and Country Planning Act 1990. Therefore, an application for planning permission is not required.

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

2. It certifies that the operation specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land specified in the Second Schedule would have been lawful, on the specified date and thus would not have been liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.

3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the operation described in the First Schedule and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any operation which are materially different from those described or which relates to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.

4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the provisions in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
