Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object to this application on the grounds that this has been a vibrant, community based pub under previous owners. It is my belief that it is crucial to the village and has been sorely missed [redacted] This pub has been there for so many in the community from celebrations of births, marriages, christenings, birthdays, cultural gatherings. The live music has brought so many people together. It has offered employment to many and helped foster lasting friendships. It used to support other local businesses and showcase the village though daytime meets such as the classic car days. I felt strongly enough about the thought of the pub never re-opening that my family and I seriously considered buying it to re-open as a pub. [redacted]

Kind regards
