Kevin,

I've had a read through the response and I'm happy with the response, however I have also looked at my original comments from the previous application which may also apply to the current application.

Regards

Jon – the applicant has also provided a response to your comments (also on file dated 08.04.25). Given these and the extant permission in place to convert to three residential units please could I have your thoughts on this as well?

Hope all ok but any problems please do let me know.

Thanks as always,

Kev
